at Ciscianati. The bills are true bills upon some Rhode Island bank from which the name has been extracted and "Xenia" substituted. A statement has been going the rounds that the Cashier of the Fay-etterille Branch Bank of Arkansas had absconded to Texas. Whether this be so or not, and we have heard it strongly denied, the report of the Commissioners appointed to examine the state of the Branch under his care is anything but flattering to him. It appears just as far as destroying the books goes. The report says: " We reget that an investigation of this branch of our trust has been renmenced; all of which have however been found, and are still legible

Having quoted so much, it is quite needless to add that the account of the business and books of the Branch is deplorable throughout.
